If one or more learning activities have already been registered in your transcript of records, you will be able to select them with the purpose of satisfying this rule (you can earn a specific number of credits by taking exams that are not included in the academic offer of your degree program). If this requirement has yet to be satisfied, you will be asked to select a degree program and the system will show you all learning activities available for each curriculum. Should this be an optional rule, it is possible to skip it and move to the next one.

NOTA BENE

The use of the browser keys to go forward or backward in wizard can cause anomalies or errors in filling in the study plan. Keep to the navigation suggested in the page.
